

As part of the

Series of Occasional Seminars on Contemporary Topical Issues,
St James Presbyterian Church presents

Human Sexuality

A Christian Response to Our Sexualised Culture

Seminars by Rob Yule

Where? St James Presbyterian Church, Moturoa

When? Friday, November 8, to Sunday, November 10

St James Presbyterian Church
24-26 Lawry Street
Moturoa
New Plymouth 4310

Phone: (06) 751-2644
Mobile: (027) 446-9692
Email: office@stjames.org.nz

About the Speaker

Rob Yule is a recently-retired Presbyterian minister. Married to Christene, he has five children and fourteen grandchildren.

Rob has had an interesting and varied career. He studied at Auckland, Otago, and Edinburgh Universities, and was chaplain at Victoria University of Wellington in the nineteen seventies. He served in churches at Hornby Christchurch, St. Albans Palmerston North, and Greyfriars, Mt. Eden, Auckland. He played a key role in charismatic renewal in the Presbyterian Church of Aotearoa New Zealand, and was Presbyterian Moderator in 2000-2002.

Rob has lectured in the Manawatu Branch of the Bible College of New Zealand, and – in mission trips from St. Albans after the fall of Communism – at Harvest International Ministries Bible School in the Czech Republic. His recent courses at Emmaus College, Palmerston North have included ‘New Evidence for God’s Existence,’ ‘Presence and Power: The Theology of the Holy Spirit,’ and ‘Human Sexuality: A Christian Perspective on Today’s Sexualised Culture.’

Date	Time	Topic
Friday, November 8	7:30 pm	“Sexuality in Contemporary Culture”
Saturday, November 9	9:00 am	“God and Human Sexuality”
	11:00 am	“In Praise of Enduring Love”
Sunday, November 10	7:30 pm	“Christian Sexual Ethics”
	10:00 am	“Human and Divine Love”

Registration Costs (excluding Sunday service):

For the entire seminar series: $25.00 per person
For individual sessions: $10.00 per person

Prices include morning tea and supper.